

NEWSLETTER - MARCH

Welcome, March! I know some of us are all still buzzing about our “event filled” February! I think this month should be just as much fun for the children and families.

This month we will be celebrating Read Across America, which coincides with the ever so popular author, Dr. Seuss’ birthday. Dr. Seuss is best known for his rhyming books and “wacky writing skills”. On March 2nd we will be hosting a birthday party in honor of Dr. Seuss’ birthday. What’s a birthday party without cake? We ask that you dress as Wacky as you can on Wednesday, March 4th to help us celebrate this week!

This is going to be a very busy week. The 4-year-old classes have been counting down to the 100th Day of school, and it’s finally here! On March 5th the children will be dressing up as “100-year-old people”. This will surely be a picture-perfect day.

During the week of March 9th, the classroom teachers will be celebrating all Community Helpers. During this week, the children will be learning about the different Community Helpers and how these people play such a significant role in our daily lives.

There are lots of opportunities to get dressed up this month. St. Patrick’s Day is notorious for wearing green clothing. Everyone’s a little Irish on St. Patrick’s Day.

Mark your calendars for Donuts with Dad as well! The children and Dads will have a special morning filled with arts and crafts, toys and, of course, donuts!

Our 1st annual Handbag Bingo will be taking place on Friday March 20th. This is an ADULT ONLY event which is sure to be a hit! Join us in breaking bread in a fun and exciting way. Oh, and did I mention all the possible designer handbags we have to give away!

March is not done yet! The Easter Egg Hunt is scheduled for March 26th, and the rain date will be Friday, March 27th. This will wrap up the extremely eventful month and take us into Easter Break! Happy Easter to all and see you in April!
